

WHEREAS, there are over 61 million people of all ages living with disabilities in communities throughout the United States, making up almost a quarter of the country's population; and

WHEREAS, there are over 38 million Americans with disabilities who are eligible voters; and

WHEREAS, the disability community has a critical interest in policies and decisions made and enacted at local, state, and national levels that impact our lives directly; and

WHEREAS, making sure people with disabilities have access to voting is essential if these policies are to meet the real needs of people with disabilities in our communities; and

WHEREAS, voting is one way for the disability community to have a say in the people and policies that impact our communities; and

WHEREAS, REV UP, which stands for "Register! Educate! Vote! Use Your Power!" is a national effort to build the power within the disability community; and

WHEREAS, members of the national disability rights community are organizing the 7th annual Disability Voting Rights Week - September 8 - 12, 2025.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and Council of Rockville, Maryland, designate the week of September 8 - 12, 2025, as Disability Voting Rights Week, in Rockville, Maryland, and support the growing involvement of the disability community in the process, and urge all residents to support this effort.
