

WHEREAS, on April 22, 1990, the Rockville Science Center held its first Rockville Science Day and has continued Science Day as an annual event in the City of Rockville; and

WHEREAS, this year marks the 35th anniversary of Rockville Science Day; and

WHEREAS, Science Day is a local family-oriented event designed to acquaint youth with the world of science and to help both children and grown-ups alike understand how science is used in our daily lives; and

WHEREAS, science lies at the heart of technological progress, space exploration, human and ecological health, and environmental concerns, and Science Day provides informative and entertaining exhibits about everything from environmental science and nature to reptiles and birds, space exploration, biotechnology, robotics, and rockets; and

WHEREAS, on Sunday, April 26, 2026, the Rockville Science Center will present its 35th Annual Rockville Science Day on the Rockville Campus of Montgomery College, which will include hands-on activities for kids of all ages and technological innovations of interest to adults.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Mayor and Council of Rockville, Maryland, do hereby proclaim April 26, 2026, as ROCKVILLE SCIENCE DAY in Rockville, and urge all members of the community to participate in this opportunity and connect with science in the "real world."
